European Proceedings of Social and Behavioural Sciences (EpSBS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed series. The main objective of the EpSBS is to promote interdisciplinary studies in social and behavioural sciences by providing a platform for international scholars to disseminate their work.

Topics include but are not limited to anthropology, archaeology, psychology, sociology, philosophy, interdisciplinary humanities, economics, political science and additional entries in related fields, including education, legal studies, environmental studies and media studies. The series also welcomes works highlighting the connection between human activities and social interactions.

The EpSBS publishes theoretical, experimental or application-based works with the objective of contributing to a greater understanding and development of social and behavioural sciences. EpSBS publishes either monographs for example, master thesis/doctoral dissertations or edited volumes based on the outcomes of conferences.

Once published, all proceedings are submitted for evaluation and possible coverage in Web of Science Core Collection™ Conference Proceedings Citation Index - Social Sciences & Humanities (CPCI-SSH).

Preface

On behalf of the organizing committee, I am pleased to present the proceedings containing selected, peer reviewed papers from Proceedings of the 18th International Conference “Professional Culture of the Specialist of the Future” (PCSF 2018) which was held in 28-30 November, 2018, in St. Petersburg, Russia.

The objective of the conference was creation of an interdisciplinary platform for discussing the abilities, skills, knowledge required by future specialists in different fields.

The importance of the conference was that constantly changing requirements for employees require new approaches to education. It is not enough for a specialist to have professional skills. Soft skills, language knowledge, IT, ethics, health knowledge and many others are needed.

The conference comprised keynote speeches and plenary sessions which covered Humanitarian educational paradigm of the future specialist; Innovative technologies in university disciplines; Actual problems of physical training, sports and health; Innovative approaches and modern technologies in the theory and practice of teaching; foreign languages; Sociocultural triggers and barriers to innovation; Influence of language, history, culture and traditions of the studied country region on the professional culture of specialists; Integration of fundamental science and the real sector of the economy and Communicator's professional culture: development drivers and creative technologies.

213 papers were accepted and 210 presented at the conference. The conference submission management system was on www.easychair.org. The presentations was done 28, 29 and 30 November 2019, from 10 to 19 in parallel sessions. The conference's international flavour was provided by participants who came from Russia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Italy, Turkey, China and Germany. The review process for the papers was stringent. The software program used for peer review and plagiarism www.easychair.org and <https://spbstu.antiplagiat.ru/>, respectively. Each submission was subjected to single-blind review process. The number of submissions received was 317, the number of reviewed submissions was 279 and the number of submissions accepted was 213 indicating an acceptance rate of 67%. A total of 93 reviewers were involved in the review process. The external reviewers also were used for the review process. The average number of reviews per paper 3. Proceedings of 18th Professional Culture of the Specialist of the Future (PCSF 2018), was hosted by Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University, Russia.
